Licence Terms:

This add-on for Microsoft Flight Simulator is freeware, but it remains the property of the author, Jens B. Kristensen. You can use this add-on for your own enjoyment, share it with your friends, distribute it by email or internet, but

- 1) It must be the zip file as you received it, without changes of any kind.
- 2) It must be at no cost for the receiver.

If you want to upload freeware repaints or other freeware modifications of this model to internet download sites, please ask for permission first (permission will be granted in most cases, so don't worry!)

This add-on may not be included in any commercial product or distributed on CD or other media, without my written permission (on paper or email).

Enjoy!
